REPORT.

To the Class:

In presenting to the class their first Triennial Report, the Secretary desires to thank those who have promptly answered the questions which were sent them, and thus contributed to making this Report as full and accurate as it is. No pains have been spared to secure all the information possible about all of the class; but some members have found their time too precious to reply to the questions asked, and they must not feel slighted at having brief mention, and occasional mistakes in their records. The Secretary is anxious to have these Triennial Reports of value; and, to be of value, they must be accurate and complete. To further this end all of the class, both graduates and non-graduates, are urged to write once in a while to the Class Secretary, and mention any items of interest, as marriage, births, and other facts which would be desirable to have for succeeding reports. Particularly, change of address should be promptly reported, as very frequently inquiries are made by members of the class for the address of some classmate, and too often the information cannot be given.

And now, in wishing you all contentment and happiness and all the good things of this life in due season, I would ask you to notify me of any errors or omissions in this Report, and, as far as is agreeable, to keep me informed of such events of your life as you know would be of interest to the class as the data for our next Triennial Report.

Very truly your classmate and secretary,

W. L. Chase.

THE CLASS BABY.

THE Class Baby put in an appearance July 15, 1877. The Class Secretary with praiseworthy enterprise was promptly on hand, and presented the class congratulations. He wishes to state that his reception by the happy father was all that could be desired. In fact, he was treated as well as he could have treated himself, and early on her natal day made the acquaintance of Mary Greenough Chase.

Being on somewhat intimate terms with Mrs. Chase, he interviewed her, and found that that prudent lady had already provided a cradle, and so decided to send a cup to Miss Chase; and she is now the lucky possessor of a dainty souvenir from H. U., 1876, for which she will make her best courtesy to the class when she meets them.

CLASS FINANCES.

THE CLASS FUND.

THE original subscription to the Class Fund was $6,280, made up of, —

1	subscription of	$300	$300
2	"	250	500
1	"	200	200
2	"	150	300
2	"	125	250
18	"	100	1,800
3	"	75	225
42	"	50	2,100
23	"	25	575
2	"	15	30
96			$6,280
	Average	$65.40

This fund was created for our spiritual and temporal needs, to pay the necessary running expenses of the class, to provide the wherewithal for our triennial suppers, expenses on Commencement Day, and to defray cost of class reports, &c. The amount subscribed was satisfactory; and, considering the times, it is just possible that the instalments have been met as fully as could be expected. As this subscription was voluntary, the Class Secretary feels that the class would not desire to have those pressed to "pay up" who would be too much inconvenienced in doing so. The subscriptions to the Class Fund were to be paid in five annual instalments of twenty per cent of the whole amount subscribed.

THE COLLEGE FUND.

The fund usually known as the Class Subscription Fund has been called in our reports the "College Fund," as it was raised to be given to the college.

Our original subscription to this fund amounted to $4,090, made up of, —

2	subscriptions of	$300	$600
2	"	250	500
2	"	150	300
6	"	100	600
9	"	75	675
27	"	50	1,350
2	"	25	50
1	"	15	15
51			$4,090
	Average		$80.11

The subscriptions to the College Fund were to be paid in ten annual instalments of ten per cent of the whole amount subscribed, beginning with the year after graduation.

Of those who subscribed to the two funds, twenty-two (22), representing subscriptions to the amount of $1,275 on the Class Fund, and $515 on the College Fund, have failed to pay a single instalment. And nineteen (19), representing subscriptions to the Class Fund of $1,495, and to the College Fund of $775, have paid one instalment only. It is hoped that all who can meet the instalments, and square up back dues, will do so.

Only the members of our class who were at Harvard the senior year have had any call made on them for subscriptions to the two funds. The Secretary would be glad to receive subscriptions to either fund from the non-graduate members who may feel disposed to contribute.

A detailed statement of the class finances is submitted (see page 59).

CLASS MEETINGS.

The Annual Class Meeting is held at high noon on Commencement Day, in the room open for the Class at Cambridge.

THE FIRST CLASS MEETING

was held in Stoughton, Commencement, 1877. No important business was transacted.

THE SECOND CLASS MEETING

was held in Stoughton, Commencement, 1878. The Secretary made his report, and stated the condition of the class funds. The report was accepted, and the subject of the Triennial Supper brought up for discussion. BRADFORD, E. M. WHEELWRIGHT, and the Class Secretary, were appointed a committee to have the supper in charge.

Adjourned.

W. L. CHASE, Secretary.

THE THIRD CLASS MEETING

was held at Young's, to take action on the death of our classmate FRANK WHEELER BARRETT. Suitable resolutions were presented by ROCKWOOD HOAR, which were approved, and the Secretary instructed to send a copy to the family of FRANK W. BARRETT, and also to publish the resolutions in the Boston Advertiser and Boston Journal.

Adjourned.

W. L. CHASE, Secretary.
